GOULD ABDICATES.

His Son, George J. Gould, to Succeed Him in Business.

The King of the Street Willing to Quit With the More Bagatelle of One Hundred Millions!

NEW YORK, April 17.—Mr. Jay Gould has declared to his near friends his intention to retire from his active business life on the completion of his steam yacht, the Atalanta, built for his proposed tour around the world. His son, Mr. George J. Gould, a young man of twenty-three, is to take his place as a speculator, and Mr. Gould himself will load a private life.

Mr. Gould's fortune is carefully estimated in round numbers at $100,000,000, of which $30,000,000 is in the stock of the Western Union Telegraph company, and $20,000,000 in the stock of the Missouri Pacific Railroad company. In real estate he has never put much money, considering the size of his fortune. His investment in this kind of property amounts to about $5,000,000. The remainder of his wealth is in securities—mainly in the shape of bonds of different railroad companies.

But one large "deal," in speculative parlance, remains to be mentioned previous to his retirement, and that is from the account of the proposed alliance between his south-western system of railroads and the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia system and other tributary roads.

Except in his speculations, there is no record of his activities, those in his confidence save just the last mentioned. The last news of him is that he and Mr. Wm. H. Vanderbilt engaged in the somewhat famous "pogging" operation to prevent a general and disastrous break in the whole list.

BRUSSELS, April 17.—It is reported that the government will shortly present to the chambers a bill relating to explosives.

WIESBADEN, April 17.—Colonel Auguste Kettner, a distinguished military author and the nom de plume of Johannes von der Wall, is dead.

ODESSA, April 17.—The trial by the military court of twenty-six members of the South Russian workmen's federation is concluded. All were convicted. Three were sentenced to penal servitude for life, seven to fifteen years' penal servitude, four to ten years and four to four years. Eight were banished to Siberia.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—The condition of the currency continues to attract much attention in Japan. The sudden and violent fluctuations are attributed to the effect of speculation in official circles. The failure of the national bank system seems beyond dispute.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

English Trade and Annexation.—Bismarck Better—Booth's Present—Nihilists—Japan's Bursted Bank.

LONDON, April 17.—The commons in further recognition of the services in Egypt of Lord Wolseley and Baron Alcester (Admiral Seymour) have passed a grant of £2,000 each year, and at death to pass to the heirs.

Lord Talbot de Malahide and Dr. William Farr are dead.

The Mark Lane Express, in a review of the British grain trade the past week, says: "The supply has decreased and prices are irregular, varying in the market now. Trade in foreign wheat is declining, and the prices of flour, maize, and soya are still cheaper."

Richard Power, member for Waterford, has resigned the whip of the Irish party.

Six business firms, including Paul (Koenig) Frisch & Co., were burned out in a fire at a square last night. The loss is heavy.

Earl Dorby has given up the possession of territory from the British Island of Sherbo to within a few miles of Liberia.

VICARIA, April 17.—The president of the receding received a letter warning him of an attempt to be made soon to destroy the parliament building. The structure, in consequence, is now entirely surrounded by mounted police.

The Stadt Theatere, Vienna, has presented Edwin Boott with a silver laurel wreath composed of thirty-two leaves, each leaf bearing the name of a member of the company.

BERLIN, April 17.—The emperor has gone to Schwerin to attend the funeral of the grand duke.

The health of Bismarck is improving. He is now able to take short walks.

There is scarcely any prospect of a treaty of commerce between Germany and Spain.

One man was killed and six seriously injured by the fall of a wall at the Stadt theatre, which is being taken down.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The emperor of Austria has chosen to succeed him.

"The boys," as Cornelius and William H. Vanderbilt are called, have taken their place in the market and Mr. Gould's contemplated retirement will be even more complete than that of Wm. H. Vanderbilt, for Gould's has been a life of speculation.

Mr. Washington E. Connor, who has long been his business manager, and who is head of the firm in which he is a special partner, said that Mr. Gould's affairs were in such a condition that they would be closed in about four hours.

They were to be done more rapidly than expected, as the trial of Curley had been adjourned.

ADAMS, and the rest of the court, for the defense of Curley, had arranged to have the trial of Lt. Col. Hiller, then adjourned.

James Curley, the man who was killed, and Burke, did not think Burke deserved to be murdered, but did not think Curley deserved to have murdered, and who Curley deserved to have murdered.

A servant girl, the first witness called, fully identified Curley as one of the men she saw in the court on the 16th of May.

James Curley swore that just before Burke was stabbed he told him that Curley had been attempting to take the life of Forster.

Curley admitted that he had been engaged in twenty attempts to take the life of Forster, but would not have called Forster's "removal" murder.

The conspirators had arranged for the assassination on the 16th of May last of Lt. Col. Hiller, then adjourned.

James Curley, the man who was killed, and Burke, did not think Burke deserved to be murdered, but did not think Curley deserved to have murdered, and who Curley deserved to have murdered.

Upon the conclusion of the testimony of Curley, the trial adjourned until to day.

Adams, and the rest of the court, for the defense of Curley, had arranged to have the trial of Lt. Col. Hiller, then adjourned.

The effect of the latter received by the foreman of the jury which tried Col. Hiller, threatening that he would be killed unless a verdict of "not guilty" was found, was shown to day by the fact that of the special jury persons failed to appear, notwithstanding the warning that a fine of $100 would be imposed on each absconce.

—MORE DISCLOSURES.

DUBLIN, April 16.—The inquiry of Clifford Lloyd into the plot to murder in the Crusheen district has led to remarkable disclosures. The first shows the existence of a conspiracy obtained by the confession of a man named Tubbidy, wounded in an attack on an objectionable gang by moonlighters.

Tubbidy has given full particulars in court of the murder of a man named Kennedy, by the assassin, who fled from a distance.

Tubbidy relates that he was longed to a secret society in which he was introduced to the members of the society.

He was induced to continue in the society.

In January, 1882, the society was reorganized with the special object of killing landlords, agents and spics. The local leader, named Macneir, introduced to the members a stranger from Dublin, who said he had traveled much, and that the Land League would supply the society with arms, and promised that the League would pay Macneir the expenses of men sent out of their own districts. He also said the members might have to go to various parts of Ireland, and even to England, to attack landlords and agents. The name of the new society was the Invincibles or Vigilantes.

There is more grain in Chicago, elevators now than there ever was before on any given date.

The signal service bureau has published the official report on the Michigan fires of 1881, in pamphlet form.

A meeting of Irismen in New York has declared against further agitation against England, and demands open war.

The Charleston News says that if the northern Democracy nominate Butler for president it will enjoy a monopoly of electing him.

Maggie Dooley, of Washington, sloped with a colored employee of her father, and when found by her father refused to leave her affluence.

The Lincoln Guard of Honor held a commemorative service at Lincoln's tomb on Sunday, being the eightieth anniversary of the assassination.

A contract has been closed at Fort Worth, Tex., for the shipment of 75,000 head of cattle to Wichita Falls on the Fort Worth & Denver railroad.

It is stated that Attorney General Brewster will close the case for the government in the state-contro trial in a speech which will occupy one day.

Two children at Fort Worth, Texas, encased themselves in a dry goods box partly filled with straw and then accidentally set the straw on fire, suffocating them both.

There is no hope of securing convictions in any of the New Orleans or South Carolina electric fraud cases. The juries acquit in the face of the most positive evidence.

The wife and child of H. Ziepprecht, druggist, of Duanesburg, Iowa, were found in a large fifty foot deep, and both dead. It is not known whether it is a case of suicide or an accident.

The sonship telegraphed from Fort Worth, Texas, stating that an enormous meteor had fallen at Williams' ranch, in that state, turns out to be a pure fiction. No such meteor has fallen.

Mezzerooff, the nihilist, proposed to wage a dynamite war against England, and thinks it no trouble at all and very little expense to lay the cities and dock yards waste and blow up the navy.

The Diamond Match company, of Cleveland, is making a big thing of the abolition of the tax on matches. It is not expected that the price of matches will be reduced for at least a year, and by that time the members of the company will be millionaires.

A well-known spiritualist by the name of Colby, lecturing at Michigan City, said that the spirit of Maggie Shields, lately deceased, was before him and charged that her physical was the cause of her death. Dr. Mullin, who attended Miss Shields, hearing of this, called on Colby and horsewhipped him.

The new civil service rules make no discrimination on account of sex, and the chief of bureaus are bringing forward facts to discourage competition on the part of women. One fact is that in a department where there are 400 men and 122 women, the time lost account of sickness in three months was 200 men, nearly 300 days; women, nearly 700 days.

A Sufferer from Rheumatism.

I limped about for years with a cane, and could not bend down without exacerbating pain. Parker's Ginger Tonic effected an astonishing cure and keeps me well. It is infallible. M. Guylfoyle, Binghamton, N. Y.

Confidence.

Zoëra is a certain preventive of maternal troubles, as it keeps the liver active. It makes bilious fever impossible. On the same grounds it makes indigestion impossible and the blood pure.

It is want of judgment to allow prejudice to prevent one from trying this remedy. The writer has seen many such, who, being persuaded, were surprised and gratified at the results. Try a 10-cent sample. Sold by Prentiss & Evanson.

Its Equal Yet to Hear From.

The movements of a mule's hind legs are very variable and uncertain, but Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil takes but one course—it heals and cures. Its equal for asthma, rheumatism, and other diseases. Price 50 cents, of Stearns & Baker.

As a gentle tonic, with no alcoholic properties, N. K. Brown's Ess. Jamaica has no equal.

—Marshal Hogan arrested a disorderly drunk late last evening.

—Farmers generally in this section of the county are busy putting in the spring grain.

—The New gas light company are extending their gas mains on West Bluff street, in the first ward.

—The high wind and warm sun of the past few days have had a good effect in drying up the mud in the roads.

—The street gas lamp in front of court street M. E. church was broken, by some means unknown, on Sunday evening.

—There will be another interesting exhibition at the roller skating rink this evening. The interest there seems to be a fixture.

—One tramp, a barefooted boy, waded into the presence of the municipal court to-day, and was given seven days at the Harper house, on a bread and water diet.

—A colt belonging to Dr. Humphrey, which was being exercised on Ringgold street in the third ward, this morning, got away from the driver, and made a clean home run, to Main street. We did not learn the extent of the damage.

—A subscription for the purpose of collecting funds to reimburse the family of Mr. M. S. Ryckman, who lost their house and household goods in yesterday's fire, is being circulated, and is meeting with considerable success.

—The funeral of Ella McCune, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McCune, notice of whose death appeared in the Gazette of last evening, will take place in St. Patrick's church, at nine o'clock to-morrow morning, Rev. Father McGinnity, officiating.

—The Grand Army boys are meeting with good success in disposing of tickets for their entertainment on Thursday evening; and the committee are hard at work arranging the stage in Lappin's hall, for the tableau, that will move along smoothly on that occasion.

—The advance brigade of the Burr Robbin's great American and German allied shows started out this morning under command of Mr. George K. Steele, the general agent. The show will make its first stand, after leaving this city, in the village of Milton.

—The funeral of little Willie Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richardson, took place at the residence of the parents, on River street, this afternoon at three o'clock, Rev. W. F. Brown, of the Presbyterian church, officiating. The services were attended by a large number of sympathizing friends of the family. The remains were taken to Oakhill cemetery for interment.

—The closing meeting of the Mutual improvement club, in the parlors of All Souls church was well attended last evening. Miss Ida Barris read an interesting paper on "The custom house, its relation to commerce," in which that lady gave an intelligent account of the new tariff law and its working; Miss Oakford repeated her well written paper on "The tent on the beach," and Rev. Jenk L. Jones closed the entertainment by reading a paper entitled "Religious, ethical and helpful poems of Whittier."

—A City Without a Burden.

When the old board of aldermen went out of office last night, Alderman Robinson made an interesting report which should cause the people of Janesville to feel proud of the management of the city's finances. It is in effect, that there is a debt of only $23,000 owed by Janesville—a debt which could be paid in a single year without making the rate of taxation as great as that of Beloit. This debt of only $23,000 is in bonds which have not as yet matured. There are no suits pending against the city, and outstanding accounts due and unpaid.

This is a most gratifying exhibit. It shows that the common council has not been extravagant. The disposition of city councils as a rule, is to spend money, and this is why the municipal debt of this country is running up into hundreds of millions. There are not a dozen cities in the United States of the population of 10,000 or over, the debt and taxation of which are so small as that of Janesville. In other places these have increased at an alarming rate until some cities having a population of not more than 15,000 or 25,000, are burdened with a debt of from $100,000 to $1,000,000. Some tax-payers have thought the city government has been too conservative in certain respects, but the safer side is always that of economy, and if Janesville lacks public works and other improvements that make an outward show, it has, what some cities devoutly wish for but cannot obtain, a low debt, and very low taxation. The time may come when the thrift and business interests of the city may demand greater public improvements, and if it does we believe the sentiment of the city will warrant their construction. In the mean time let us rejoice over the good reputation which Janesville enjoys for economy and freedom from debt which burdens the people.

—Death of Thomas J. Anderson.

Mr. Thomas J. Anderson, died at the home of his son—Mr. Harry Anderson at 12:30 this afternoon. He was born in Cilliaco, Ohio, in 1809 and settled in Monroe in 1833, and lived there until two years ago when he made his home in this city. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock when the remains will be taken to Oakhill cemetery for interment. The Rev. Mr. Curtis will officiate.

—Old papers for sale at the Gazette court room.

—Prof. Stanford's Baking Powder.

A SUPERIOR SUBSTITUTE.

Prof. J. C. Booth, of Philadelphia, the distinguished chemist, says: "We have no hesitation in recommending your preparation as a superior substitute for cream of tartar in the preparation of bread."
